

Iron County Register

Entered in the Post Office at Ironton, Mo., as Second Class Matter.

VOLUME LIII. NUMBER 32

Ironton, Missouri,
THURSDAY, JAN. 8, 1920.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Real winter since the first of the year.

Coming! Mary Miles Minter in "Anne of Green Gables."

Burglarizing is becoming a very serious proposition, indeed.

A masquerade ball at the Academy of Music the night of January 30th.

John T. Posten, a well known citizen of Des Arc, was killed Monday by an unruly cow.

To Mr. J. W. Russell we are indebted for a dozen choice eggs from his Model Poultry Yard.

J. O. Cottle, who lives south of Arcadia, contemplates opening a photograph gallery in Ironton.

Recorder Hawkins Saturday issued a marriage license to Arthur H. Giles and Flora Britton of Redmondville.

For Sale—Two registered Durac Jersey gilts, pedigrees furnished.

THOS. SYMONDS, Arcadia, Mo.

Mayfield Huff underwent a surgical operation in a St. Louis hospital last Saturday. He is expected home in a day or two.

Five of the six banks in the county publish their official statement in this week's REGISTER. All make creditable showings.

Rev. Plummer Smith and family, who have been in Bellevue the past year, will return to Africa next month, sailing about the 14th.

Miss Minnie Crocker returned Sunday to her school work at the Chillicothe Business College, following a week's Christmas visit with home folks.

Valley friends of Rev. C. Brandt will be sorry to hear that he is in a critical condition in Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, and there is but little hope for recovery.

In referring to the new time card on the railroad last week the REGISTER gave the time of train No. 4 at Ironton as 5:58 p. m. This was an error. It should have been 4:58.

The personal property of the late Caroline Hensley will be sold at public auction at the late residence of the deceased in Pilot Knob, Saturday, January 10th, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m.

T. H. Berryman, a long-time subscriber and faithful friend at Bellevue, writes: "May the REGISTER never weaken in its fight for the right and Democracy, or sell out for the glitter of gold!"

The pupils in the second story of the grade school building moved over to the high school building Tuesday morning. The move was necessitated because of inefficient heating apparatus in the grade building.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bellevue Valley Bank Monday the old board of directors was re-elected for the ensuing year. The bank's business the past year has been highly satisfactory.

The Arcadia Valley Bank last week installed a Burroughs Posting, Listing and Adding Machine. This is said to be the latest thing in adding machines and does the work of a mighty good bookkeeper. It cost $750.

For Sale—151 acres, 80 in cultivation, balance in timber. All under fence. Good buildings, well, cistern and springs. Lots of fruit. $40 per acre. Two miles south of Arcadia.

J. O. COTTLE, Arcadia, Mo.

The examination of the Red Cross Classes in Hygiene and Home Nursing will take place at 2:30 o'clock Saturday at the High School building. Members of all three classes are urged to be sure and be there at that time.

Miss Louise Gross, who has just successfully completed a term of school at King's school, in the south end of this county, was fortunate in securing a position in the primary room in the Bismarck school, which was recently vacated.

Joe Stafford, a former resident of the valley, but who has been making his home in Crawford county for a number of years, was a visitor to Ironton last week. Joe says he is getting along very nicely and taking the world easy these days.

The county court is being criticised for selling the road bonds without advertising for bids, and some are contending that a better price should have been obtained. It is, indeed, unfortunate if we are already in a wrangle over the road proposition.

Mrs. Caroline Hensley, an old resident, died quite suddenly at her home in Pilot Knob last Thursday evening. Rev. Harting conducted the funeral services Sunday afternoon and a large concourse followed the remains to their last resting place in the Middlebrook cemetery.

Prof. B. W. Loomis writes that he has severed relations with the State Normal at Warrensburg and is now connected with the Federal Board of Vocational Education. After a stay of two weeks in St. Louis he and Mrs. Loomis will go to Washington, D. C. Iron county friends wish them well.

After an absence of fourteen years E. T. Elgan, of Colton, California, is spending a few days in Ironton. He comes here from Cherry Valley, Arkansas, where he spent the past two months at the bedside of his sister who died last week. He reports the Ironton folk in the Colton country doing nicely.

It is stated that H. G. Harrison has resigned as cashier of the Bank of Des Arc and will accept the position of cashier of the Exchange Bank of Piedmont. Mr. Harrison has been with the Bank of Des Arc several years and his departure is a decided loss to that institution and the community. A young man by the name of Kinder from Shannon county is Mr. Harrison's successor.

The REGISTER made a big blunder last week when it stated that J. W. Russell, the poultry man, east of town, had gathered 68 dozens of eggs during the month of December. In fact, Mr. Russell's egg collections for December were 253 dozens, or 3,036 eggs. A mighty fine showing, indeed. The truth is that Mr. Russell has the model poultry yard of all this section and he conducts it on scientific lines.

We have purchased the entire Grocery Stock of Lucy & Lucy at Bismarck, Mo., at a sacrifice, and expect to put it on sale about February 1st, 1920. This, with our "After Inventory Sale," will be worth waiting for. Watch for the Dates.

GAY & KINDELL, MERCANTILE CO.

The editor is in receipt of a note from his long time friend, Mr. E. W. Graves, of Poplar Bluff, and for so many years a resident of this county. Mr. Graves says: "Again I am sending my subscription for your paper. This time for 1920. Some years ago it looked a long way off, but here it is, and through the goodness and mercy of a kind Providence we (you and I) were permitted to stay and see it."

For Sale—10 acre Truck Farm, situated one and a half miles east of Ironton, Mo., new frame house, greenhouse, barn, chickenhouse; all kinds of fruit trees, strawberry, blackberry, hundreds of grape vines, all of the best quality, and in bearing; $750, cash. Possession at once. For more particulars inquire

A. DURVAUX, Owner,
Ironton, Mo.

John Clemonds, the twenty-year-old son of Arch Clemonds of Graniteville, was pretty badly bruised by the automobile he was driving turning over just beyond Pilot Knob as he was traveling this way last Wednesday morning. It is fortunate that he was not more seriously injured. Two other occupants of the car escaped with a few scratches. The accident was occasioned by the steering wheel getting out of order. The car turned completely over and fell into a deep ditch by the side of the road.

Piedmont Banner: "Two large construction gangs are rebuilding the Western Union Telegraph lines through the county. The lines parallel the Missouri Pacific and are being put in excellent condition. One of the gangs makes its headquarters in cars installed at Des Arc and the other stays here at the Darden Hotel. The gangs will likely be here a week or two having been in this territory for about three weeks already. New poles are being put up and new wires strung."

Mr. Howard Crowe, of Poplar Bluff, a coffee salesman who has been a regular visitor to Ironton the past ten years or more, recently purchased the palatial Parsons home at Riverside.

In speaking of the removal of the Crowes from Poplar Bluff last week's Poplar Bluff Republican said: "Poplar Bluff hates to lose these good people, and yet people who know what their Riverside home is congratulate them. Riverside was the home of the late Charles B. Parsons. The residence, a palace in fact, is erected on a hill overlooking the nearby river and the country far around. There are beautiful drives and walks through the great groves of native trees. The great mansion is said to contain 35 rooms."

The county court last Wednesday sold the $200,000 road bonds to be issued by Iron county to the W. R. Compton Company of St. Louis at 98 cents on the dollar and accrued interest. The Compton Company also agrees to pay 5 per cent interest on the money until the first withdrawal; thereafter 4 per cent on daily balances. The purchasers of the bonds are to pay all attorneys' fees and to furnish the bonds without charge. The bonds will probably be dated February 1st. The announcement of the court's action in selling the bonds without first advertising for bids occasioned some surprise, but it is said the members of the court had considered bids received by adjacent counties for bonds and concluded that the offer of the Compton Company was as good as could be secured—possibly better than could be secured thirty days later. A representative of the Compton Company was before the court Wednesday.

The store of S. J. Tual in Arcadia was burglarized Sunday night and a thousand dollars' worth, or more, of merchandise was stolen. The robbery was not discovered until Mr. Tual arrived at the store Monday morning. The burglars forced an entrance through the front door and from tracks in front of the store building had loaded the stolen goods into an automobile, possibly two of them, and then gone northward. People living in the vicinity of the store heard an automobile shortly after midnight, but paid no attention thereto, thinking the occupants were passengers from the night train. In the loot carried away by the burglars were dry goods, groceries, candy, cigars, cutlery, two guns, ammunition, and many other articles. The moon shone brightly throughout the night and it seems strange that the robbers could come, accomplish their purpose, and get away without detection. It is evidently the work of an organization of professionals, but some people insist they had the aid of local parties. It is certainly hoped the guilty ones will be brought to speedy justice.

PERSONAL.

D. F. Farr of Des Arc was in Ironton Monday.

James G. Chilton of Nebraska was in Ironton last week.

Sam Gay returned to Culver, Military Academy Sunday.

Milford Riggs will leave to-day for Marble Hill to attend school.

Mrs. J. A. Reyburn is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mackley, in Desloge.

Mrs. H. M. Collins has been seriously ill at her home in Arcadia the past week but is improving slowly.

Editor Bradshaw of the Farmington Times and Rev. O'Rear of Farmington were Ironton visitors Tuesday.

Byron Kinnell and Edwin Coddling left Thursday for Columbia to resume their studies in the State University. Frank Rosentreter and sisters, Misses Elisabeth and Helen, of St. Louis, were guests of their sister, Mrs. H. L. Rieks, in Ironton the past week.

"A MAN IN THE OPEN."

A Great Human Character.

This Man in the Open is first a sailor, then a cowboy, last a ranger. He knows the bitter cold of Labrador winters, what it is to be wrecked at sea, how it feels to be a brother to the grizzly in the wilds of the great Northwest. Always he is a lover and a worshipper of nature. Simple of heart he is, and of a quaint, abundant, unfeeling humor all his own.

He falls in love with a grand opera singer whom chance brought to the forest and the wilderness, marries her, loses her, fights for her, loses her again, and at last—well you must discover for yourself what happens at last. Here is a story enriched by the warm blood of life.

Academy Theatre, Ironton, Saturday, January 10th.

Card of Thanks.

The bereaved of Mrs. Caroline Hensley of Pilot Knob extend to all friends their sincere thanks for all kindnesses and courtesies in the sad hour of their great loss.

St. Louis papers please copy.

Baptist News and Notes.

Now that the New Year resolutions have been made let us see how well we can keep them. The pastor and his family are thankful for many kind remembrances during the holidays. Think, if you can, of a Baptist preacher having such quality, variety, and abundance of food—a quarter of a kid, fresh roast beef, turkey, fruit, etc. Not one of the family had ever tasted kid, but we enjoyed it immensely. We had forgotten the taste of turkey, but soon recalled the flavor after that fine turkey passed under the carving knife.

Our own church, as well as the Southern Baptist Convention, went away "over the top" in the "Victory Campaign," and we're still going. Please read carefully the following texts: Heb. 10-25 and 2 Co. 8:7.

Don't fail to come to the business meeting, Wednesday, January 15, at 7:30 P. M.

A. B. BUSH, Pastor.

REWARD.

Strayed—From farm, three miles west of Edgehill, one year old red heifer, with horns; smooth crop off left ear and labeled in right ear in G. B. Goggins' name. Information rewarded.

RAYMOND GOGGINS,
Edgehill, Mo.

Job-Work, all kinds, at this office.

METHODIST MENTION.

Fort Hill—Sunday School, 9:45 A. M. Preaching—1st, 3d and 5th Sundays, 11 A. M.

Union Church—Sunday School 9:45.

Preaching—Sunday 11:00 A. M.

Epworth League, Sunday, 6:45 P. M.

Prayermeeting, Wednesday night, 7.

Choir Practice, Wed. night, 7:45.

This week has been set aside for all protestantism as a "Week of Prayer," and is being observed by the protestant churches in the valley with Union Services. Monday night all of the different churches were represented at the Baptist Church in a Union Service. It was a great spiritual meeting. Tuesday night the meeting was held in Union church and Wednesday night we will meet at the Presbyterian church, and thus we shall continue throughout the week.

Services next Sunday as above mentioned, and we extend an invitation to all to worship with us.

H. E. STONE, Pastor.

Do you contemplate installing a furnace in your home? If so, call on Lopez Store Co. for information regarding the Caloric—the wonderful pipeless furnace—thousands being sold daily throughout the United States.—Adv.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, Death has claimed one of our number, Sister Nettie W. Dike, Sylvan Rebekah Lodge, No. 85, has suffered a great loss.

Sister Dike lived true to the teachings of our Order, and observed The Golden Rule in the Lodge, in her home and among her friends. May we meet again where no "good byes" are spoken, and where sickness, sorrow and death will never come; where we shall serve and love one Father, and all be one great family of brothers and sisters around the Great White Throne.

We pass the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in both papers in our town.

2. Resolved, That a copy be sent to the bereaved family, and

3. Resolved, That we sympathize with the family in their bereavement, and will do all we can to lighten their sorrow and help them to say, "Not my will, but Thine be done." "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord!"

May we all bow in humble submission to the All Wise Father who doeth all things well, and realize that our great loss is her great gain.

Respectfully submitted in F. L. T.

Annapolis News.

Fine weather the past week—clear and pretty. There has been scarcely any snow this winter.

Wm. Smith of Richland Creek will have to have his foot amputated above the ankle this week. Too bad.

While removing some weather boarding from the post-office building Monday of last week Mr. Williams fell from a ladder and fractured his arm and received other injuries. He has been laid up ever since but hopes to be on soon.

Sam Moss, wife and granddaughter and George W. Hampton visited in Des Arc Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Wade Hampton and children visited C. D. Alexander and family in Ironton Sunday.

The new railroad is being pushed. Working Sunday and every day.

Drew Lewis of St. Louis has returned to Annapolis to work on the new railroad. His family will move back here soon.

Boge Stith of Des Arc was a visitor here Monday.

John T. Webb received a car of hay and corn the past week.

James Young and old man Lee and wife came from Flat River last Sunday on their way to Stevenson's mill to visit relatives.

Thomas Lonas is putting lumber on the railroad for shipment from his mill on Richland Creek.

John R. Harris has all the work he can do in the blacksmith shop at the present time.

Emmett Wammack is home from St. Louis, where he has been working since his return from the army.

A new store house will be built at the mines in a short time. A concrete mixer has been received there to mix the concrete for the foundation for several buildings to be erected.
